Landal GreenParks Cookie Statement

This policy explains why and how we use cookies and other similar technologies (below jointly referred to as 'cookies') and how you decide which cookies are used. In general, our cookies do not collect personal data, but for those cases in which they do, we advise you to read our privacy policy as well.

1.   WHAT IS A COOKIE?
A cookie is a small text file containing data that is stored on your computer, tablet or mobile phone. A cookie is not a programme that may contain harmful programmes or viruses.

2.   WHY WE USE COOKIES
We generally use cookies for four reasons:

- Strictly necessary cookies - these cookies are essential for the website to function, for instance to remember what you may have added to a shopping cart, and they cannot be disabled.
- Functional cookies - these cookies are used to remember the choices you have made, for instance in which language you wish to view the website.
- Performance cookies - these cookies are used to learn how our website is being used, for instance which parts of our website are visited most often.
- Marketing cookies - these cookies are used to make our advertisements more relevant to you.

3.   EMAILS
We also use cookies in our emails to help us improve our communication by learning how you handle emails, for instance if you have opened our email and/or if you have clicked on a link.   You can stop this by not downloading images when you open our emails, by not clicking on links in the email or by changing your browser or email settings (see below for more information on how to do this).

4.   HOW LONG ARE COOKIES STORED?
The period that cookies are stored on your device may vary. The expiry date of cookies is calculated from the last date on which you visited the website When cookies expire, they are automatically removed.

5.   REFUSING OR REMOVING COOKIES
You can decide for yourself which cookies you accept by selecting the preferences in our cookie pop-up when you visit our website. You can also refuse and remove cookies by changing your browser settings. Where you can find those settings depends on the type of browser you use. If you change the settings, please be aware that you may no longer be able to use certain functions and services, because these depend on whether or not the website is enabled to remember the choices you have made. Guidelines can be found here:

- Internet Explorer

- Mozilla Firefox

- Google Chrome

- Opera

- Safari

- Flash cookies

- Apple

- Android

Please remember that when you use several different browsers, you will have to remove the cookies in all those browsers.
